Nondiscrimination and Harassment In the Workplace

Nondiscrimination Policy: ALVERNIA UNIVERSITY complies with all applicable federal, state and local nondiscrimination laws in the administration of its educational programs, services, and employment relationships.

We are committed to equality. Continued and responsible growth of our university results from enhancing and utilizing the abilities of all individuals to their fullest extent practicable within the framework of our environment. All employment decisions advance the principle of equal employment opportunity. In addition, personnel activities such as recruitment, interviewing, selection, promotion, training, benefits, transfers, lay-offs, demotion and discipline are administered according to good business practices, the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, Executive Orders concerning equal employment opportunity, and Equal Employment Opportunity Commission regulations and guidelines, all of which require that all persons have equal employment opportunities and strictly prohibit discriminatory and harassment practices.

The participation of women and minorities in management by employment and promotion will continue to be emphasized so that they may be given the opportunity to contribute to the success of the university. All employees of Alvernia University will continue to approach this responsibility with the sensitivity and human concern they have in the past.

The Human Resources Office is charged with the responsibility to maintain the necessary programs, records and reports to comply with all government regulations, and with the goals and objectives of our equal employment opportunity program. Any employee, student, or applicant of this university who feels that he or she has been discriminated against in employment or recruiting should contact the Human Resources Office to pursue the proper discrimination complaint procedure.

Harassment Policy: ALVERNIA UNIVERSITY strives to maintain an environment where all employees and students are free from harassment. It is the responsibility of each person on campus to respect the personal dignity of others. The university will not tolerate harassment of any type. No employee or student will be discriminated or retaliated against for bringing alleged issues of harassment to the attention of the university, and employees and students are encouraged to do so. Employees of the university are encouraged to consult with the Director of Human Resources regarding their concern. Students are encouraged to consult the Dean of Students for assistance. These individuals have been trained in issues involving harassment awareness and prevention.
