(There will be a practice for students participating in Baccalaureate and Commencement Ceremonies. Practice will be held on Thursday, May 8th at 5:00 p.m. in the Physical Education Building. Please make every effort to attend.)

HOODING CEREMONY & BACCALAUREATE MASS
Saturday, May 10th, 10:00 am ~ Physical Education Center

- All students who are processing in the Hooding and Baccalaureate Ceremony should meet in the Physical Education Center Cardio Center, no later than 9:15 am on Saturday, May 10, 2014.
- Be sure to bring your academic attire. Gowns should be pressed.
- There will be Faculty and Staff available to assist you in properly donning your Academic Attire.
- Hats are not to be worn for Baccalaureate.
- Hood is carried over the left arm in preparation for The Hooding Ceremony.
- Appropriate dress attire is requested, including sensible shoes.
- Personal items, such as purses, can be kept in a classroom which will be locked during the ceremony. You may not carry items to the PEC with you.
- After Baccalaureate Mass there will be a light fare reception for all participants and their guests.

COMMENCEMENT
Saturday, May 10th, 2:00 pm ~ Santander Arena (formerly Sovereign Center)

- All students who are processing in the Commencement Ceremony should meet in the Assigned Dressing Room at the Reading Eagle Theatre of the Santander Arena, no later than 12:30 pm on Saturday, May 10, 2014.
- Staff Members will be on hand to direct you to the appropriate dressing room.
- Be sure to bring your academic attire. Gowns should be pressed.
- There will be Faculty and Staff available to assist you in properly donning your Academic Attire.
- Your hood and hat are worn for Commencement. Tassel goes on the right of your head.
- Appropriate dress attire is requested, including sensible shoes.
- Personal items, such as purses, can be kept in the dressing room which will be locked during the ceremony. You may not carry items with you.
- After Commencement there will be a light dessert reception for all participants and their guests in the Santander Arena.

Feel free to contact me at tracy.hine@alvernia.edu or 610-796-8211 with any questions.