

Alvernia Opportunities for Leadership Position Description 2017-2018

Position: Orientation Weekend Leader

Description: An Orientation Weekend Leader (OWL) is a current Alvernia University student who plays an integral role in New Student Orientation (NSO). The main role of all OWLs is to assist in making our new students feel welcome. OWLs also answer any questions our new students or their families might have, or direct the new student to the appropriate person to answer the question.

Benefits: First and foremost, the Orientation Team (O-Team) has FUN! OWLs look back on their experience and are extremely proud of the vital role they played in the lives of our new students. OWLs develop leadership skills, meet new people, and have the opportunity to move back onto campus earlier than the rest of the returning students. OWLs are also compensated with 2 T-shirts, community service hours, and additional swag (as budgets allow).

Requirements:

- Complete and submit the attached AOL Application by February 10th.
 - Participate AOL Mega-Selection Interview Day on Sunday, February 26th from 8am-5pm
 - Participate in all AOL Mega-Training on Friday, April 7th – Sunday, April 9th (more details will come soon, but please reserve that weekend to be on campus)
 - Attend OWL and OA training on Sunday, August 19th through Wednesday, August 23rd, 2017 (you must attend each day in its entirety).
 - Participate in all activities relating to New Student Orientation on Thursday, August 24th through Monday, August 28th, 2017. *Please Note: ALL OWLs and OAs will be expected to assist with Check-In and Move-In on Thursday morning of New Student Orientation.
 - Be in good academic & disciplinary standing (as of the end of the Spring 2017 semester).
- Resident Assistants (RAs) may not be Head OWLs due to the role they will have during NSO.
