

Alvernia Opportunities for Leadership Position Description 2017-2018

Position: Shadow Host

Description: Shadow hosts serve as a host for perspective students looking to attend Alvernia University who want to learn more about campus life. Shadow Hosts take perspective students with them to their classes, show them around the campus, eat with them for meals in the dining halls, and take them to events that are held on campus during the visit. Shadow Hosts are there for the perspective student to ask questions about their intended major and about the campus as a whole.

Shadow hosts help make the perspective student's visit enjoyable and memorable so that they want to attend Alvernia. Shadow hosts help to offer a unique visit for these perspective students by inviting them to see more than what is seen on a normal campus tour. Shadow Hosts must be comfortable talking with new people.

Benefits: Shadow Hosts are able to build their interpersonal and communication by talking with the perspective student and answering any questions they may have. Shadow Hosts gain responsibility by being responsible for a perspective student, meaning they must meet them when they arrive and make sure they go to their classes and are have a great experience on campus. Shadow Hosts do get paid to and take the perspective student to classes.
