

Alvernia Opportunities for Leadership Position Description 2017-2018

Position: Student Ambassador

Description: The Alvernia University Student Ambassadors Program was founded to educate prospective students and their parents about Alvernia University, from both the academic and social perspectives. In addition, the Student Ambassadors actively participate in campus events, generate student involvement, and serve as a network for other activities and organizations on campus.

Student Ambassadors are seen as a select group of elite students on Alvernia's campus and throughout the community. Ambassadors are given many professional development opportunities throughout the year and should take advantage of as many as possible.
